

I strongly oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation and urge you to retain the current ownership rules on June 2nd. The media should be public, rather than private, interest.